INDIANAPOLIS COLTS™ LIMITED EDITION

2015 COLUMBIA VALLEY RED WINE BLEND

This 2015 Indianapolis Colts™ Ring Of Honor #18 Limited Edition Wine, commemorating the legendary #18, is the result of selective sourcing, exceptional winemaking and expert blending. Focusing on specific areas in Washington and Oregon, Maison Noir Wines sources the best fruit possible from the Columbia Valley.

THE WINE

In celebration of one of the game's all-time greatest players, André Hueston Mack, founder and master winemaker for Maison Noir Wines, crafted this wine for Colts fans. The Columbia Valley is located in Washington with part of the appellation spilling across the border into Oregon. Variety typicity and pure fruit aromas and flavors are the hallmarks of wine from this region.

PROFILE

The Colts™ Reserve Red Wine is from one of Washington's warmest vintages to date. The warm temperature led to advancement of all markers of the growing season, with bud break, bloom and harvest occurring two to three weeks ahead of historical averages. It's a wine full of flavor with good structure and concentration. Flavors of candied cherries, leather and savory herbs provide for a vibrant finish.
